What is ACHE?

The American College of Healthcare Executives is a professional association for individuals seeking to advance their careers in the profession. The ACHE SouthEastTexasChapter (ACHE-SETC) helps meet ACHE member needs at a local level.

The Chapter's goals are to:

- Promote professional interaction among individuals with responsibility in health care management.
- Provide assistance to meet the continuing education needs of its membership.
- Endeavor to recruit qualified applicants for affiliation with ACHE.
- Establish a liaison mechanism between members of the Chapter and ACHE to encourage participation in the affairs of ACHE.

Benefits of Membership

- Networking
- Breakfast meetings with talented speakers from the health care industry

- Access to research and current news
- Career planning
- Educational advancement opportunities
- Mentorship program
- Governors Exam Study Groups
- Certification opportunities (FACHE status)
